

SJS WAR COUNCIL TELLS PROCEDURE FOR NAVY COURSE

The War council of San Jose State college at its meeting on April 15 authorized the following procedure regarding the course in Naval Indoctrination:

1. The course will be absolutely required of all Naval and Marine reservists with the single exception of those V-5 reservists who are not deferred until June.

2. The lecture is scheduled for Thursday at 11 o'clock.

The drill is scheduled for Tuesday at 5 o'clock.

3. The Tuesday drill will take the place of all PEV for that day. There will be no PEV class on Tuesday at 11, 12, or 5 o'clock, since almost all reservists will be in the Naval drill. The Army reservists may make some other arrangement with Mr. Hartranft.

4. Men who cannot take the drill at 5 o'clock on Tuesday may substitute the Sunday morning sailing at the Palo Alto yacht harbor. However, this arrangement must be approved by Mr. Hartranft and registered with him.

5. No reservist may be excused from Naval Indoctrination except on the authorization of Dean DeVoss.

6. The PEV class on Tuesday-Thursday at 11 o'clock is to be discontinued. Men who were in PEV on Thursday at 11 o'clock will have to transfer to the 12 or 5 o'clock class. If this looks difficult, they must clear with Mr. Hartranft, possibly by substituting the Sunday sail at the yacht harbor.

La Torre Pictures Needed For Section

According to editress Barbara Kurz, the La Torre is well on its way, for the proofs for the first section of the book have arrived from the engraver.

Holding up the completion of the society section are APO, which needs one president's picture and one informal group shot; Sappho, which needs one president's picture; Beta Chi Sigma, one president's picture and one informal shot; DSG, one president's picture; and Zeta Chi, one informal shot.

Arrangements must be made for these pictures in the La Torre office today.

Dellums Speaks

C. L. Dellums, member of the Brotherhood of Sleeping-Car Porters, will address the Faculty Forum at noon in room H17. His topic is, "Recent Changes in Negro Status."

Professor Elmo Robinson, chairman, invites all faculty members to attend.

'ARSENIC AND OLD LACE' TICKETS GO ON SALE TODAY

With a slight change in prices, tickets will go on sale today for the three night—April 29, 30, and May 1—performances of "Arsenic and Old Lace." Students may obtain tickets for 30 cents, and general admission is 55 cents. They are on sale in the Speech office.

Despite troubles incurred because the cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace" demands 11 men—in these days 11 men being 11 too many—Director Ted Hatlen of the Speech department has continued rehearsals under the pressure of recasting almost every week. The play even lost its original director, Wendell Johnson, former speech instructor here, to Hendy's Iron Works, where he is doing drafting.

Cluttered up with 13 dead bodies, the plot of the play concerns the most fantastic mass-murder plan ever conceived by playwright. Two sweet, kindly, elderly ladies murder in cold blood 13 men with arsenic, dissolved in their special brand of home-made elderberry wine. Obviously the old girls are crazy—but only on one line of thought, and that is that they, in their benevolent way, believe that all old, lonely men would be far happier dead, and so proceed to play God.

Such a series of crimes would

Lorrill A. Palm Promoted To Major

Capt. Lorrill A. Palm of San Jose, who attended San Jose Junior college for two years, has been promoted to major in Warner Robins, Ga., Air Depot Control Area Command. Major Palm is chief test pilot and assistant, maintenance division, of the air depot.

He was commissioned a first lieutenant at Kelly Field November 28, 1939, and later made a captain at Warner Robins. Major Palm was graduated from San Jose High school in 1929, and received his B.S. degree in chemistry at Stanford. He is a nephew of Carl F. Palm of Manteca, and Mrs. E. C. Strom, Berkeley.

MEN TAKING NAVY-MARINE EXAM TOMORROW WILL BE EXCUSED FROM CLASSES ALL DAY: DE VOSS

Those men taking the Navy-Marine qualifying test tomorrow will be officially excused from classes all day, according to Dean James DeVoss, college Navy representative.

"President MacQuarrie requests that faculty members provide make-up tests and assignments for them," Dr. DeVoss stated.

Freshman Council Will Be Selected At Meeting Today

All Freshmen are urged to appear at a meeting tonight at 4 o'clock in room 34. The council will be chosen after this meeting by the officers, so all class members who desire to be on the Freshman council should appear at this time so the officers know who is interested.

"Many activities are to be planned this quarter," says Jacquie Jurgensen, past secretary-treasurer of the class, "and we want people on the council who will really work to make them a success."

Patty Dunlavy, on viewing the success the Sophomores made of their dance Saturday night, remarked, "We must have a really extra-good party in order to beat our arch rivals. On the council is the responsibility for the success or failure of this effort."

"Don't forget, freshmen, this meeting is very important, and all of you should show up," concluded Roberta Ramsay, council representative of the class.

OSKAR STROESSEL ETCHINGS ARRIVE

Fourteen portrait etchings of present and ex-justices of the Supreme Court of the United States by Oskar Strossel, Austrian artist who fled the Germans in 1939, will be on display in the Art building this week and next, according to Dr. Marques Reitzel, department head.

The series of portraits was sent from the Arthur H. Harlow Inc. Gallery of New York City, upon request of Dr. Reitzel, and will be exhibited at various spots along the west coast. Open to the public from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on weekdays and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays, the exhibition is unique in that it is believed to be only one in existence of a group of judicial portraits done by one man.

Included in the etchings are portraits of Hugo L. Black, Felix Frankfurter, Stanley F. Reed, William D. Douglas, Frank Murphy, Robert H. Jackson, James F. Byrnes, Breckinridge Long, Charles E. Hughes, and Cordell Hull. Of special interest are two studies of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Each of the studies was made from direct posing of the subject. Emphasis on the sitter's countenance to disclose intrinsic character

To be held in room 112 of the Science building, the examination will be given from 8:30 until 5 o'clock. Students are to have from noon until 1:45 p.m. for relaxation and lunch. Doors will be locked at 9 a.m. and none is to be admitted into the room after that hour.

Men taking the test are requested to bring pencils, although extra ones will be available. They will also be given a blank, which is to be filled and handed back as they enter the room.

V-1 reservists to take the examination tomorrow are: Domenico Altieri, Leland Amaya, Arden Ardaiz, Jack Bariteau, Daniel Berrar, Rudolph Brazil, Maurice Comstock, Robert Costa, David Davis, Kent Dedrick, Ciro Fassanaro, George Fernandes, John Ferrante, Ad Fishel, Donald Freedman, Robert Gager, Joseph Garafola, Harvey Gorham, Jack Gottschang, Robert Graham, Alfred Gross, Lawrence Hansen, Fenton Hill, Leland Hoffman.

Those appearing on the above list will have completed six quarters (or four semesters) by June 18, 1943. If there is doubt as to an individual's name being on this list, he should check with the Dean of Men's office.

Marine Corps reservists who will also take the test are:

Individuals appearing on that list have not completed 90 units to date. Those in doubt may check with the Dean of Men's office.

POSTPONE SHOTS

The Health office announces that all diphtheria immunization shots will be postponed until further notice.

Senior Mixer Set For Tonight In Student Union; Big Time Planned

By CHARLES COOK

President Chuck McCumby's newly formed senior class council gets off to an auspicious start tonight with its first brainchild of the quarter—an elaborate mixer scheduled for the Student Union and starting at 7:30 o'clock.

General Chairman Elise Bartenstein released Friday details of the evening's program which will include entertainment in the form of singing, dancing and mixer games.

BRISTOL'S MUSIC

Bill Bristol's "Clambake Seven," minus the services of maestro Bristol, have been lined up to provide dance rhythms. Roy Diederichsen, in charge of mixer games, will provide several pre-dance numbers.

Headlining an all-star entertainment cast, emceed by veteran Bill Kidwell, is Helen Rees, statuesque blonde singing star of the 1943 Spartan Revelries. Among the current hits slated to be warbled by Miss Rees is the popular favorite "As Time Goes By."

Ruth Bishop will be in charge of refreshments for the evening.

MORE ENTERTAINMENT

In last week's senior council meeting, the first of the spring quarter, McCumby's newly installed officers formulated extensive plans for a variety of social events during the remaining eight weeks of the college year. Tentatively scheduled for May are a swimming party and a hay ride. Also on the calendar is another movie party at some local house, featuring a "sizzling saga of the safebrush," at which McCumby's "cowboys" can whoop it up without reservation.

Further plans for Senior Week and additional mixers for the remainder of the quarter were deferred until a later date. However, plans were being hastened for suitable entertainment to be used in Senior Orientation tomorrow and next week.

Delta Phi Upsilon Plans Gala Party

Among the gala social activities that the Delta Phi Upsilon have planned this quarter is a joint party with all kindergarten-primary majors. It will take place later in the quarter at Alum Rock.

Other plans for a potluck supper to be held in a kindergarten in San Jose, and a picnic supper honoring graduating senior members, have been discussed.

Already this quarter Delta Phi Upsilon members have been working for the Red Cross, knitting an afghan. They are also compiling and making scrapbooks for the San Jose Day Nursery and children of war workers.

The Delta Phi's have recently initiated eight new members: Dorothy Sievers, Jean Earle, Lois Gilbert, Janice Isom, Marie Kurle, Pearl Jespersen, Fern Anderson, and Mardi Durham.

The Delta Phi Upsilon is a national honorary fraternity of early childhood education and has an active chapter on-campus as well as an active alumnae in San Jose.

KSJS TRYOUTS

Students desiring to take part in the weekly radio plays that KSJS sponsors and produces over KQW may try out for parts in this week's play today in room 155 at 4 o'clock.

The radio speaking society presents plays that are written by its own members, and Peter Mignone, speech instructor, directs them.

Spartans Split Two-Game Series With Bulldogs

Lose 6 To 2 Friday Afternoon; Abel Rodriques Hurls Good Game While Mates Pound Out Thirteen Hits In Saturday's 10 To 5 Slugfest At Fresno State

After dropping the hard fought opener 6 to 2 Friday afternoon, San Jose's ball club went on a hitting rampage, coupled with the very effective pitching of newcomer Abel Rodriques, to severely trounce the Fresno Bulldogs 10 to 5 in Saturday's contest and in so doing evened the two-game series at one apiece. Both games were played on the Fresno State college diamond.

In Friday's tilt Jack Gottschang held the Bulldogs well in check until the sixth inning when they broke loose with a four-hit barrage to score four runs and again in the eighth when they again got to him for three hits and three runs to sew the ball game up.

OUT OF THE HUDDLE

By CHARLES COOK
Sports Editor

Preliminary reports from our third assistant secretary in charge of correspondence with the ERC boys at camp would seem to indicate that they are scattering like quail at a shootin' match. Said secretary has it, unconfirmed of course, that Bert Robinson is still "on the hill" waiting for relocation at an Army air base, where he will start preliminary training for a second loole's commission.

Harold Sonntag, it is said, has been detailed to the physical education division and at this writing is probably already on his way to another post. Burly Bill Perry, authoritative reports divulge, is en route to the bad lands of Texas with the medical division. Davey Hines has been attached to the paratrooper squad, while Cece Mattos recently entrained for the east coast.

By the time this reaches print any of the above men may be a thousand miles from our reported destinations, but at least we are up on the latest rumors.

A memo from "Cuddles," our pin-up girl, releases the additional info that midshipman Stu Carter, soon to become an ensign, will fly out here from Chicago the latter part of this month. Along with several All-American football and basketball players of past years, Stu has been ordered to report early next month to Newport, Rhode Island, for specialized training at a PT boat school. Cuddles adds that Carter, a former football, basketball, and baseball phenom, plans to spend some time on-campus renewing old and young acquaintances.

U.S.F. Postpones, St. Mary's Cancels Tennis Matches

USF's athletic director, Jim Needles, has notified Spartan Tennis Coach Ed Blesh that his team will not be able to hold the match scheduled between the two teams on the date originally planned—Tuesday, April 20.

Due to Navy examinations, which will be held at the bay city school on that day, Needles asked that the event be postponed approximately a week.

Another piece of bad news came from St. Mary's, who notified Blesh that they had decided to cut tennis from their list of inter-collegiate sports for the duration.

That means that the Spartan netmen will have two less matches on their season's agenda, because the two teams were going to play

In the meantime the locals were unable to get to the services of Fresno's ace chucker, Eddie Flynn, for anything more than a two-run rally in the sixth when Elwood Clark drove a terrific double down the third base line to score Cy Taylor and Lillio Marcucci. San Jose collected only five bingles off Flynn's excellent mound work.

Saturday afternoon, Coach Milt Lanyon elected to start Rodriques, regular outfielder, on the mound and his choice proved a wise one for "Rod," who has not worked on the hill once this season, turned in a masterful performance, striking out five men and issuing only two bases on balls. He allowed the hard-hitting Fresno 10 safeties, but kept them well scattered. Fresno scored three of their five runs in the last two innings when Rodriques began to tire a little.

OPEN SCORING

San Jose opened the scoring in the first stanza when Willie Duran walked and was sacrificed to second by a sacrifice off the bat of Arden Ardaiz. Spartan center-fielder Marcucci then slashed a double to deep left field sending Duran to third from where he scored on Merv Salvasser's wild pitch.

Fresno retaliated, however, in their half of the inning by sending a run across the plate on two singles and a wild pitch.

The Spartan hitters found their range again in the third when they tallied three more runs. Duran again led off by getting a free ticket to the first sack and was sent around to the hot corner as a result of successive one basers by Ardaiz and Marcucci. He then scored on Frank O'Brien's infield out. Jim Chinnici, next man at the plate, whacked a single to left, scoring Ardaiz and Marcucci.

SCORE FOUR RUNS

San Jose's bats came to life again in the fifth frame to score four counters on three bingles and a pair of errors. Clark opened the inning with a single to left, O'Brien reached first on an error and Vic Cerro singled to load the sacks. Salvasser damaged his own cause by walking Chinnici and Jim Wilson to score Clark and O'Brien and leave the bags loaded again.

At this point the Fresno coach inserted Garzoni, rightfielder, on the mound for Fresno. Rodriques greeted the new arrival with a one-bagger to left scoring Cerro but Duran then drove a line drive directly into the hands of Scott who doubled Chinnici off third. Wilson scored the final run of the inning on Ardaiz's blow over the keystone bag.

San Jose completed their scoring in the seventh canto by sending two runs across the plate. Ardaiz led the San Jose hitting with three bingles. Clark, Marcucci, and Cerro each had two safeties for their efforts.

home-and-home matches — one at St. Mary's and the other here.

In an effort to build up his scanty schedule, Coach Blesh is trying to line up a couple of matches with COP, but as yet has received no answer from them.

CINDERMEN EXPECTED TO HAVE GOOD SEASON DESPITE LOSS OF KEY MEN TO ARMED FORCES

By JOHNNY HUBBARD

Although San Jose's track team isn't given much of a chance against the U. C. Bears up in Berkeley Saturday, the boys are showing, even in this early part of the season, that they aren't going to be a soft touch for any opponent—not excluding mighty Cal.

In our own league, if there was one this year, "Tiny" Hartranft's charges would be one of the top outfits.

This is not an empty statement. It can be shown by comparing the showing of San Diego's trackmen, who were also members of the now-defunct CCAA, in a meet held in the southland a little over a week ago—on the same day that the Spartans competed in the Stanford Invitational meet.

The times, heights, and distances registered by the cindermen from both San Diego and San Jose on that day give San Jose an advantage in almost every event.

Even in the long-distance runs—the 880, mile, and two-mile—where the Spartans are the weakest, the results favor our boys.

Remembering that San Diego has always had one of the best teams in the league, this comparison makes the season's outlook take on a rosier tint.

Not that any of the team needs any of the old "look what they might have done if it hadn't been for the war" ballyhoo. They will gather their share of points in every meet they enter, and there are some plenty tough adversaries.

Thursday Against California Bears Spartan Wrestlers Go Into Action

Coach Sam Della Maggiore's wrestlers will get their first taste of dual meet competition in over a month Thursday when they tangle with the University of California Bears at Berkeley. At this writing the meet was still hanging fire with both coaches having agreed on Thursday as the appointed time, but with the Bear coach having failed to send final confirmation.

Pending definite information today, the portly Della Maggiore is working his grapplers at a fast tempo with the ultimate thought of reversing the defeat handed down by the Cal men the last time the two squads met. Without any definite knowledge as to what the Bear roster will be, Sam is planning to send a full complement of men to Berkeley.

Hans Wiedenhofer, ablest performer on the squad, has been pronounced in A-1 shape by Della Maggiore and will rule a slight favorite to top the lightweight division.

Mentor Sam is particularly anxious to get the Cal meet inasmuch as his men need another bout under their belts before the PAA championships coming up the last of the month.

The Food Machinery athletes, after issuing a blanket challenge to all sports teams, seem to want no part of the Spartan Muscle-dancers, and the scheduled meet between the two is still up in the air.

Lieutenant Jevne Speaks To Senior Class Tomorrow

Lieutenant Marion Jevne of the WAAC's will be on-campus again tomorrow to speak to students of the senior orientation class at 11 o'clock.

Following her talk, she will be available in Dean Helen Dimmick's office for those who desire to obtain additional information.

Dean Dimmick has also announced the departure Tuesday of three former Spartan women who have enlisted in the WAVES.

The students, Esta Ann Weber, Esther Snow, and Elizabeth Moody, left by Western Pacific for Hunter college in New York city, where they will receive their training.

Miss Weber, a member of Black Masque, was a December '42 graduate, while Miss Moody graduated in June.

Also at Hunter college is Joan Hughes, a '40 graduate, who is an ensign instructing physical education work. She was a member of Black Masque during her senior year.

give the play a macabre-like tone, and the result would be the usual murder mystery drama if it were not for the ridiculous situation brought on by the old girls' belief of their perfect innocence. This in itself makes for good comedy, but the introduction of their equally insane brother Teddy, who imagines himself Teddy Roosevelt and buries the murdered men, whom he believes to be yellow fever victims, in the cellar, the Panama canal in his distorted mind, is destined to put any audience into stitches.

Gruesome but laughable is another Brewster brother, Jonathan, who looks and acts like Boris Karloff (Boris Karloff played the part on the stage). He kills for the fanatic exhilaration he gets out of it.

Apparently the only sane member of the family, Mortimer Brewster, the young nephew, goes almost insane himself when he discovers his family's strange habits. He and his fiancée, Elaine, go through some "horribly funny" moments as bodies are moved in and out of window seats, and murders are attempted under their very noses.

Junior Council Members Chosen

Members for the new Junior council were chosen at the last meeting of the executive council last Friday.

The new members are: Claire Laws, Doug Aitken, Marge Bone, Gerry Reynolds, Jack Gottschang, Betty Buckley, Orlin Gire, Bob Nerell, Pat Siglin, Jean McGinnis, Ken Coleman and Bob Gager. Members of the executive council include Jeannette Owen, president; Elsa Anderson, vice-president; Winnie Peterson, secretary-treasurer; and Jeanne Wright.

These members are starting plans for a get-together of the Junior class, and will discuss them in detail at a meeting of the new council today at 4 o'clock in the Student Union. They will also make definite plans for the spring quarter, and the seniors.

There will be a meeting of the whole Junior class in the near future. All Juniors are urged to attend. According to President Owen, this will be a big year for the Juniors in spite of the fact that so many of the male members have left the college.

Library Obtains New Books On Air Age Education

Among the new books obtained by the library during the past few weeks is a series on aviation that should be of interest to all air-minded students, according to Librarian Miss Eunice Speer.

Entitled Air-Age Education Series, it represents a major step in providing schools with teaching materials in the field of aviation. The series, according to its foreword, has two objectives. First, it seeks to provide text and teaching material for older students in high schools in the field of pre-flight aeronautics. Second, it seeks to provide aviation material which may be woven into existing courses.

Included in the group are Physical Science in the Air Age; Science of Pre-Flight Aeronautics; The Biology of Flight; Social Studies for the Air Age; Mathematics in Aviation; The Air We Live In; Aeronautics in the Industrial Arts Program; Globes, Maps, and Skyways; Elements of Pre-Flight Aeronautics for High Schools; Wings For You, and several others.

Other books recently acquired by the library also pertain to aeronautics. They include Colvin's Aircraft Handbook; Alternating-Current Circuits, by E. M. Morecock; Aircraft Inspection, by Ernest E. Wissman.

All the above books will be on display at the circulation desk in the new library.

New Policy

In the future all notices pertaining to something lost or found, or any information other than notices of on-campus organization meetings, etc., must be put in as a classified ad, Bob Nerell, Spartan Daily business manager, has announced.

The charge for these ads will be 25 cents with an ASB card and 50 cents without.

The ads should be turned into the advertising staff in the Publications office, room 17.

Barry To Speak On Eugene O'Neill

Eugene O'Neill will be the topic of a lecture to be given by Dr. Raymond Barry, head of the English department, in early May.

The lecture will be one of a series on contemporary writers, and will include a biographical sketch of the playwright as well as a discussion of his works, Barry stated.

Under the sponsorship of the English department, these lectures are a monthly feature. Dr. James O. Wood, English professor, is in charge of securing the speakers. Held in room 210 of the library, the lectures are open to the public.

of his subject has been employed in each instance by the artist.

Among the European notables who have posed for Stoessel are King Zogu of Albania, Queen Marie of Rumania, and British High Command Wauchrope.

Stoessel's works were first displayed in the Corcoran gallery in Washington in 1941. The Harlow gallery has been showing his material this year and the series on the justices has been featured during March. The exhibit has been set up by Shirlee Chelbay, sophomore art major from San Jose.

Because the subject material is of historical interest, the members of the Santa Clara County Bar Association have been invited to attend.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Marine Pvt. 1st Class M. C. Hoffman, survivor of the U. S. S. QUINCY, was a leader on one of her big guns until she was sunk during an engagement with the Japs off Savo Island in the Solomons.

Hoffman is typical of the crew. You are helping Hoffman and his buddies when you buy bonds during the Second War Loan Drive. They give their lives—You lend your money.

Roos Bros. Offers Spring Styles For Easter Parade

Offering the college student quality clothes throughout the year, Roos Bros. store, at First street near Santa Clara street, is now featuring styles that will catch the eye for this year's Easter parade.

Long known as a men's style-center, Roos Bros. stores are scattered throughout California. Manager of the San Jose store is E. R. McGuire.

Other locations are San Francisco, Oakland, Palo Alto, Berkeley, Fresno and Hollywood.

This is something for the service-bound men to remember: Roos Bros. have uniforms for any branch of the service. The quality of the material is exceptional, so if any student ever needs a good uniform, he has only to go to any one of the Roos Bros. stores.

Girl Born To Mrs. John Gordon

Another blessed event was celebrated among the faculty Tuesday when Mrs. John Gordon, physical education instructor, had a baby girl.

The child, her first born, is named Patricia Linda, and weighs six pounds. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely. She was born at the San Jose hospital.

Mrs. Gordon was P. E. instructor but she resigned at the end of the autumn quarter.

By doing this he can always be sure of the good quality of his clothes.

The exceptional quality and style of Roos Bros. clothes has been recognized before. Students have only to look back to previous AWA fashion shows to realize the fine materials used in Roos Bros. merchandise.
